Instructions

Please submit predetermination requests separate form incurred claims.

If submitting a paper claim form, you must include all original receipts. Keep a copy of the receipts for your records, as People Corporation will not return them. Photocopies of receipts are acceptable only if one the following situations applies:

- If you are claiming expenses for your spouse and your spouse is covered under another health benefit plan, you must submit the claim to your spouse's plan first.
- If both you and your spouse have health coverage, your children must claim under the plan of the parent with the earliest birthday (month and day) in the calendar year. (For example: If your birthday is May 1 and your spouse's is June 5, your children will claim under your plan first.)
- If you have submitted your original receipt to your other insurance company, please provide the following:
 - Photocopies of all invoices and paid-in-full receipts
 - The original statement from the other insurance company

If submitting a fax, you must provide copies of all receipts and can keep the originals for your files. Keep the original documentation for a minimum of three years as People Corporation reserves the right to audit all claims for up to three years from the date of submission. If you have submitted your receipts to another insurance company first, you must provide:

- Photocopies of all invoices and paid-in-full receipts
- The statement from the other insurance company

Please note that claim submission by email will not be accepted.

All claims must be submitted with itemized statements and receipts, and must include:

- The claimant's first and last name
- A description of item purchased or service provided
- The date of each purchase or service
- The amount charged for each purchase or service
- The name, address, and phone number of supplier/provider

Claims must be received in our office before the claiming deadline outlined in your benefit booklet in the General Provisions section.

An Explanation of Benefits (EOB) statement indicating how the claim was assessed will be posted to the People Corporation Claims Portal. For plan members who haven't registered for the People Corporation Claims Portal, they'll receive an EOB statement via mail. The EOB is the only document that will be issued regarding the adjudication of the claim. If copies of EOBs are requested, an additional charge may be applied. Eligible claims will be paid by cheque or by direct deposit. Payment can be made to a provider if the payment was assigned.

In order to authorize and request the direct deposit of claim payments, you must:

- Register for direct deposit through our web portal or application, OR
- complete and submit a request for automated claim reimbursement form which can be found at mystudentplan.ca or on the People Corporation plan member site (if applicable).

Hospital claims must be submitted on a hospital claim form available from the hospital that provided the services. If expenses are due to a medical emergency while you were outside of the province where you live, please contact People Corporation for support with submitting an Emergency Medical Travel Coverage claim.

There are services that may require the submission of additional information in order for the claim to be adjudicated. Please refer to your plan member booklet for your specific plan requirements. To avoid delays in processing your claim, please ensure all sections of the claim form are completed.
